The hotel attendant informed deputies that the suspicious car was associated to the guests in a specific room.

After checking the guests' information, it was discovered that the guest who rented that room, Hanschris Ballente was on parole. The other guest staying in that room, Kaylee Kunce was also on probation. Deputies went to speak with Kaylee and Hanschris at their hotel room, but Hanschris jumped out the back window and took off on foot. Kaylee eventually opened the door and once inside deputies searched the room in accordance with their parole and probation terms. In the room, deputies found numerous suspicious items including stolen mail, approximately 77 credit cards belonging to multiple people, 10 ID cards belonging to multiple people, checks, a collapsible baton, pepper spray, 2 car window punches, a digital car key chip machine and a baggie containing suspected methamphetamine.
