Summary:

San Carlos, CA- On the evening of Monday, November 04, 2013, deputies from the San Mateo County Sheriff's Office San Carlos Bureau responded to several reported auto burglaries in the vicinity of downtown San Carlos. In each instance the victim vehicle sustained a smashed window and items were found missing from the car. Details are still being compiled at this time however the window of time the burglaries are believed to have occurred was between approximately 6pm and 7:30pm on Monday, November 04, 2013.

The San Mateo County Sheriff's Office would like to remind everyone to stay vigilant and report any suspicious persons or vehicles they observe. In addition, please keep all property of value within your vehicle hidden from plain view. Vehicle burglaries involving a window being smashed are usually a crime of opportunity. The suspect observes something of value within your vehicle, and then proceeds with the criminal act.
